mehrnews.com: U.S. Navy Shuts Down Computer Named "Gestapo"

The U.S. Navy spokesman at the Pentagon Lt. Mike Kafka admitted that the Navy shut down a computer server [...] named "gestapo" on Friday June 25. The computer server named "gestapo" was discovered by a reporter [...] after learning that the suspicious World Wide Web server had hit on a personal webpage and the web host name "gestapo.cnrrc.nola.navy.mil" had turned up in its website statistics.
