

02.12.2011

english.hani.co.kr: Government censorship of Twitter and Facebook content

The Korea Communications Standards Commission yesterday decided to create a new team dedicated to deliberate over social network services and smart device applications, and to reinforce deliberation. The KCSC will advise users that post problematic content on Twitter or Facebook to take it down voluntarily and, if this advice is ignored, will block such user's accounts.